"COUNT LYNAR" GIVEN TERM IN PRISON FOR WEDDING TOO OFTEN

While Suspected as Spy, Gets Six Months to Three Years.

Max Chimang, alias Max London, Alias Count Lynar de Passy, alleged German spy, arrested last November for bigamy, was to-day sentenced to the penitentiary for not less than six months or more than three years by Judge Rosalsky in General Sessions. A jury convicted Chimang two weeks

Department of Justice officials told Judge Rosalsky that Chimang had been suspected during the Spanish-American War of dealing with the Spanish Government. When he appeared in this city shortly after the outbreak of the European War he was found to be mingling with accredited representatives of the German secret service. Investigation of his record by Department of Justice agents led to his arrest on the bigamy charge. According to Assistant District Attorney Minton, Chimang for years has been a soldier of fortune, not only in war but in love. His attractiveness won him money and admiration from women, it is alleged. It was only when he was suspected of being a German spy that the patriotism of one of his victims led to Chimang's undoing. In a letter to Mr. Minton this woman, Mrs. Jane D. Champion of the Hotel Walcott, prominent socially and wealthy, said:

"I have worked incessantly to have the truth known about this man, not because of business losses, but be-cause I hear that he and his asso-ciates were connected with the indig-nities perpetrated against America." Chiming claims to have been on terms of intimacy with many Washington notables. He admitted to Judge Rosalsky, however, that he was a deserter from the United States army and had served a term in Germany for bribing an army officer to many for bribing an army officer to sell him rifles with which to arm revdutionists in Venezuela.
Chimang insisted to Judge Rosalsky that he was of noble birth.

"I was born," he said, "in the old
